THERE IS YET HOPE.

"What have you done with those oil stocks you bought last year?"

"I'm hanging on to them. If the price of paper keeps going up I may get my money back out of them some day."

Some men may be slow to catch on, but given time, most members of the gallant sex will finally reach a correct conclusion. A Topeka man has finally decided that his wife does not love him and has filed suit for divorce. Three times he bought furniture for their home and each time she sold the furniture and made away with the money. The fourth time she played that trick, the Topeka man became suspicious.

Dad Dwight, proprietor of the Clovis Marble Works, has a large stock of monuments and grave markers from $20.00 up to $50.00. He now has another engraver to help give you quick service. Was Very Weak

"After the birth of my baby I had a back-set," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill; thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took . . . medicine, yet I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I found after one bottle of Cardui I was improving," adds Mrs. Crosswhite. "Six bottles of Cardui and . . . I was cured, yes, I can say they were a God-send to me. I believe I would have died, had it not been for Cardui." Cardui has been found beneficial in many thousands of other cases of womanly troubles. If you feel the need of a good, strengthening tonic, why not try Cardui? It may be just what you need.

ISSUES PROCLAMATION
FOR THRIFT WEEK

WHEREAS, the 17th day of January marks the day of the birth of Benjamin Franklin who, by precept and example, became America's Apostle of Thrift, and

WHEREAS, the Young Men's Christian Association, with the support and co-operation of the Treasury Department of the United States, and many commercial, civic and educational organizations, has set apart Benjamin Franklin's birthday as National Thrift Day, and has planned for the observance of the week of January 17th to 23rd as National Thrift Week, designed to stimulate the individual to think straight and act wisely in regard to money matters in the realms of earning, spending, saving, investing, and giving, and

WHEREAS, it behooves every citizen to take serious thought to lessen extravagances and waste in order to strengthen the character of our citizenship and that there may be built up a more stable, prosperous and truly American population, and

WHEREAS, the economic educational program of National Thrift Week is well devised to foster these desirable conditions of thrift—a thrift, not only economic, but also social, educational, physical and religious;

Now, therefore, I, O. A. Larrazolo, Governor of the State of New Mexico, by virtue of the authority vested in me, hereby designate the week of January 17 to 23, inclusive, as and do earnestly recommend to all officers of this state, the mayors, and county officials, superintendents and teachers of our schools, ministers and priests of our churches, industrial plants, trade, civic or other organizations, and all employees or members thereof to exert every effort, individually and through their local thrift committees to make National Thrift Week a period of constructive thought and action, and of economic planning for everyone within their several communities.

Done at the City of Santa Fe, in the State of New Mexico, this 18th day of December, A. D. 1920.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the State of New Mexico.

O. A. LARRAZOLO,
Governor.

ESSAY ON MEN.

Men are what women marry. They have two hands, two feet and sometimes two wives, but never more than one collar button or one idea at the time.

Like Turkish cigarettes, men are all made of the same material; the only difference being that some are a little better disguised than others.

Generally speaking, they may be divided into three classes; husbands, bachelors and widowers. Bachelors are a commodity, husbands a necessity and widowers a luxury—especially when making love.

Husbands are of three varieties—prizes, surprises and booby prizes; making a husband out of a man is one of the highest plastic arts known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope and charity, especially charity.

Bachelors come in two varieties—eligible and ineligible. An eligible bachelor is a body of vanity completely surrounded by women, and an ineligible bachelor is a man of obstinacy entirely surrounded by suspicion.

In these days of feminism a husband is of no importance whatever until you have tried living your whole life without one. A divorced husband isn't better than none at all.

It has been a matter of scientific wonder that a fluffy, soft, tender, violet scented little thing like a woman should enjoy kissing a big awkward, stubby-chinned thing like a man.—Clifton (Tex.) Record.
